NOT CRAZY, WAITE SAYS.

Dentist Declares He Might Have Killed His Wife, but He Never Tried To.

New York, May 27.—Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, in reply to a question in cross-examination yesterday, said he did not think he was crazy. He admitted that he might have tried to kill his wife, though he never had tried to.

Women were excluded from the court room when Dr. Arthur W. Waite resumed the witness stand yesterday.

Waite's counsel, Walter R. Deuel, asked:

"Did you ever try to kill your wife?"

"No," replied Dr. Waite.

"Did you ever plan to kill her?"

"No, never."

"You never thought you might kill her?"

"I am not sure that I would not have killed her," said Waite.

Assistant District Attorney Brothers then began the cross-examination.

"Are you crazy?" asked Mr. Brothers.

"I think not."

Dr. Waite Thursday recounted how he attempted to cause the death of Miss Katherine Peck, the wealthy aunt of his wife and his own benefactor, by feeding her disease germs.

He also told of trying to kill his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Peck, in the same way before resorting to poison. He had given Mrs. Peck millions of germs, he said.

Asked how many kinds of germs he administered to Mr. Peck, Waite replied: "Typhoid, diphtheria, pneumonia and others. I put water in the sheets of his bed so that he would catch cold, but he didn't."

"What was your purpose in administering germs to all these people?"

"I wanted them to die."

"Why?"

"I wanted their money."

STORY THAT LANSING WILL RESIGN FALSE

Part of a Propaganda Meant to Create Appearance of Dissension That Does Not Exist.

Washington, May 27.—The state department made this statement regarding published reports that Secretary Lansing was contemplating resigning from the cabinet because of differences with President Wilson:

"The story is part of a propaganda, the deliberate purpose of which is to create an appearance of dissension in the government which does not exist. The story was first born last February or March, when the relations between the United States and Germany were somewhat strained. It was sent to Berlin by wireless in press dispatches. It was picked up in transit in an allied country and subsequently published there. In that way the state department became cognizant of the story and instructions were sent to Berlin to watch out for it. Apparently the persons responsible found out we were prepared for the story, because it was never published in Germany. The directors of this propaganda have now taken advantage of Secretary Lansing's illness to put out the story again."

Mr. Lansing personally denied that he was considering resigning as he left the White House.

ITALIANS AT SALONICA

Allies Ready to Strike at the Bulgar-Turk Front

ROME PREDICTS DRIVE ON TURKS

French Guns Hurried to Aid Cadorna in the North

Rome, May 27.—A terrific smash within a few weeks, aimed at eliminating the Turks and Bulgars from the war, will be the allies' first great strike for peace.

This is the report in general circulation here. Heavy allied blows from Saloniki and in Mesopotamia will be followed by a tremendous offensive against the Austro-Germans in an attempt to win the war before winter.

French, English, Serbian and Italian forces are reported concentrated at Saloniki, awaiting the word to strike against the Bulgars and Germans in southern Serbia. (This is the first report that Italian troops are at Saloniki.) Meanwhile the Russians are pressing on toward Bagdad, rolling back the Turks, who are reported to be extremely weary of the war.

The public continues to watch with confidence the official statements regarding the situation on the Trentino front. It is now reported that the first Italian reverses were due to a shortage of heavy cannon to cope with the big Austrian guns. The French are said to have come to the rescue with artillery, and new pieces are being hurried forward from Italian factories, so that the deficiency will more than be supplied within a few days.

LLOYD-GEORGE "IS DOING IT" FOR IRELAND

Talks with Redmond and Carson on Conciliation of Factions—Will Visit the Emerald Isle Himself.

London, May 27.—David Lloyd George already has entered upon the preliminaries of the task that has just been allotted to him—the conciliation of the Irish factions. He had conversations yesterday with John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, and Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, and has planned a course of action which will involve visits to various parts of Ireland and interviews with men of the most diverse opinions.

The fact that Parliament will adjourn next Thursday, for three weeks, is considered fortunate for his task, as this will make it impossible for any discussion of it to take place while the negotiations are proceeding.

ROOT A REAL CANDIDATE.

There Will Be Nothing Complimentary About the Vote, Says Dwight.

Chicago, May 27.—John W. Dwight of New York arrived yesterday and assumed charge of the pre-convention campaign of Elihu Root. It was announced that Job Hedges, former Secretary of War, Henry L. Stimson, Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, Cornelius N. Bliss, Otto T. Bannard and other prominent New York Republicans would join the Root forces in Chicago.

"Mr. Root's name will be presented to the convention by a majority of the New York delegation," Mr. Dwight said. "There will be nothing complimentary about it. Mr. Root's supporters are not seeking complimentary votes. His candidacy is too important for that, and his standing before the world is too great to think of it."

HISTORIC FLAG INCIDENTS

The Birthplace of "The Star-Spangled Banner"

This house stands at Thirty-Fifth and M streets, Northwest, in the city of Washington, D. C., near the Georgetown College.

It is the house in which Francis Scott Key lived when, as a practical prisoner of war, he wrote the patriotic lines of the adopted national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner."

It is a place hallowed in the memories of all true lovers of The Flag and all the emblem stands for. The house is preserved as one of the show places of the national capital and is daily visited by hundreds.

Who has not seen a multitude of people, at theatres and other public places, arise as one man and uncover when the stirring strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" burst forth from the orchestra or band?

This is Patriotism, and Patriotism can be shown in many different ways. OCCASION shows the patriot.

Every National, State and Civic Holiday is an occasion for patriotism—an occasion upon which every true American should
